Intro: "Shift the Focus" by Mimi Thibaut

Mimi is a lifelong learner and maker. She explores how physical and abstract structures can encourage collaboration and creativity. She uses storytelling and alternative realities in various mediums to spark new perspectives. Currently studying BA Design for Art Direction at UAL. Mimi is also President of the UAL Psychedelic Society, where she creates spaces for consciousness, curiosity, and connection.

Sebastian Konrad - Exploring Storyteller: Fabianna Giurici

Fabianna is an experienced artist manager. She currently manages Nandu, Damian Lazarus and Seth Troxler. With a background in bookings and festival management and years of experience in the music industry, she clearly understands artist development, strategic career growth, and industry dynamics.

Sebastian Konrad - Translation Storyteller: Josh Woolford

Josh is a transdisciplinary artist who works across performance, painting, sculpture, sound, video, and installation. Rooted in cultural research, their practice draws from literature, music, art, and personal experiences. In addition to their artistic work, Josh takes on design commissions and teaches at UAL and the Royal College of Art. Through abstract forms, sounds, verbal language, and the body, Josh confronts experiences of violence, aggression, and misalignment, embracing reflection, transition, and movement as powerful, disruptive forces that provoke critical dialogue, challenge prevailing narratives, and question our socio-political positioning by centring embodied knowledge and intuition.

Fannoire Ge is a London-based disc jockey and the Artistic Director of Mission London. He is known for his longer sets, during which he unravels his musical taste, takes the listener on a journey, mixes different styles, and echoes his upbringing in London, UK. London-born and shaped by his father's influence, he's spent nearly two decades refining his craft. A purveyor of quality dance music, if it lacks an infectious groove, it won't make his set. Regular spots include Spiritland, Brilliant Corners, Pikes Ibiza, and Café 1001.

Sebastian Konrad - Get In Storyteller: Joseph Muldoon "Debbie"

Debbie delivers consistent grooves from a diverse and extensive catalogue, making you dance, evoking a sense of nostalgia, and driving through both old and new techno. A resident of London's Tech Couture - with notable gigs in the city and internationally - he has cemented his place in the underground scene, while crafting mixes for respected platforms like Rinse FM, seamlessly blending cutting-edge electronic sound with timeless classics.

CONCEPT

This project reimagines how we create, share, and experience music by returning to the core values of electronic music's collaborative and unifying spirit. A spirit free of judgment and driven by a shared love for music. The EP challenges the boundaries of traditional music production by inviting individuals from across the electronic music scene to join as storytellers and co-creators, each shaping a track with me through a uniquely tailored form of collaboration. Their diverse perspectives open new creative pathways, transforming personal narratives, tastes, and emotions into sound.

The resulting EP becomes a reflection of dialogue, diversity, and shared passion, creating a space where music is genuinely experienced. The immersive listening session is designed to shift your focus from passive consumption to deep, intentional engagement with sound. The music unfolds as a shared journey through active listening, revealing its power to connect, spark dialogue, and unify.
