

1 - 1 - 1

Study Hard

● +1 ● -1

'I've decided to focus on preparing for my exams and put my other interests aside for the time being.'

I - II - II

Encouraged

‘The teacher noticed your talent.’

I - II - III Economic Stress

'You're forced to work part-time to support your family.'

11 - 1 - 1

Parental Choice

'I chose the "easy job" major that my parents recommended.'

II - I - II

Free Choice

'I stuck with the art major I was interested in.'

II - I - III

Join a Club

'I joined the school's design society.'

I - I - II Cultivating interest

● +1

● -1

‘I started experimenting with various interests, which led to academic fluctuations.’

I - I - III

Concurrent Job

‘Worked in a milk tea shop on the weekends and started to get in touch with the community.’

I - II - I

Fail an Exam

‘You couldn't sleep on the day of the entrance exam and did badly.’

II - II - I

New Hobby

'You've found a new interest in the university community.'

II - II - III

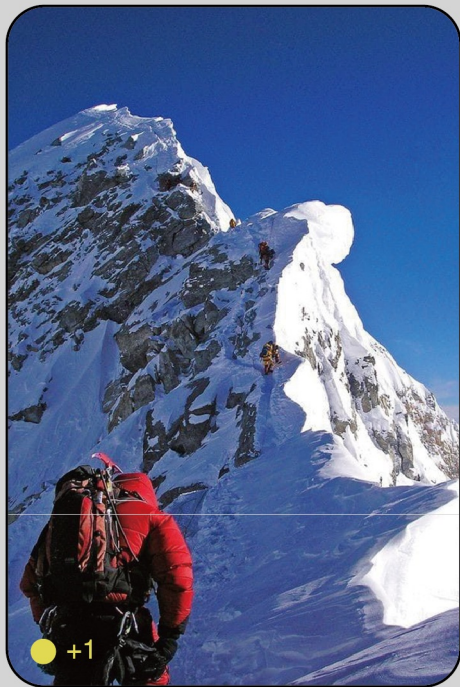

Interference

‘You’ve been asked to consider a
“more practical” major.’

III - I - I

Perseverance

'I decided not to change my major and continue on my current path.'

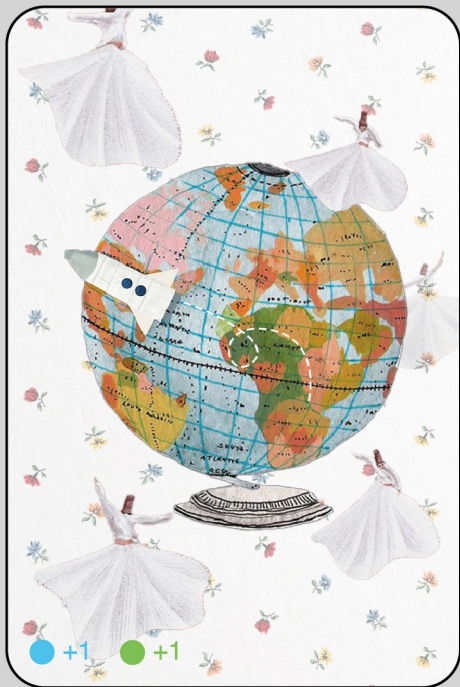

III - I - II

Change Major

'I switched to a whole new field and started over.'

III - I - III Exchange Project

'I want to go abroad and apply for an exchange programme.'

III - II - I

Electives

'An elective course inspired you to go in a new direction.'

'You have received an invitation for an internship.'

III - II - III Business Failure

‘Your little project failed, but you learned a lot.’

III - III - I

Scholarships

Studies ≥ 2

● +3

● +3

You get a scholarship and your quality of life improves.

‘You’ve been asked to consider a “more practical” major.’

III - III - III

Interference

Letter of recommendation

Carrer ≥ 2

● +3

● +2

your professors are willing to write strong letters of recommendation for you.

III - I - I

Entry

'I accepted an internship with a large company.'

III - I - II

Self-employed

'I switched to a whole new field and started over.'

IV - I - III

Postgraduates

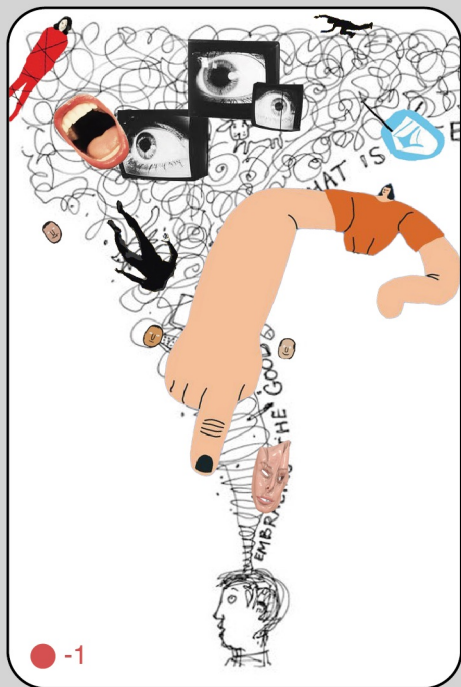

+1

'I'm preparing for graduate school entrance exams and giving up job opportunities for a while.'

IV - II - I

Distressed

‘The new boss is tough on you.’

IV - II - II

Commended

‘You were singled out for praise during your internship.’

IV - II - III

Do Overtime

‘Work overwhelms you.’

V - I - I

Gap Year

'I decided to take a year off to travel and think.'

V - I - II

Look for a Job

'I'm in a job I don't hate.'

V - I - III

Find a Tutor

'I started asking my teachers for advice on how to plan for the future.'

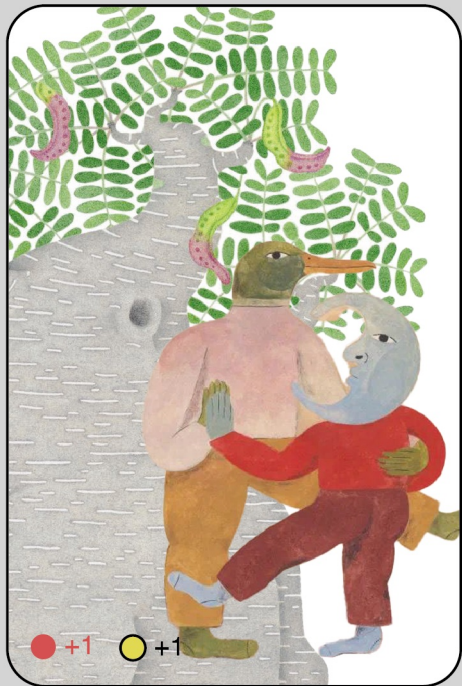

V- II - I

Stay up Late

‘Staying up late for a long time can lead to health problems.’

V - II - II Entrepreneurship

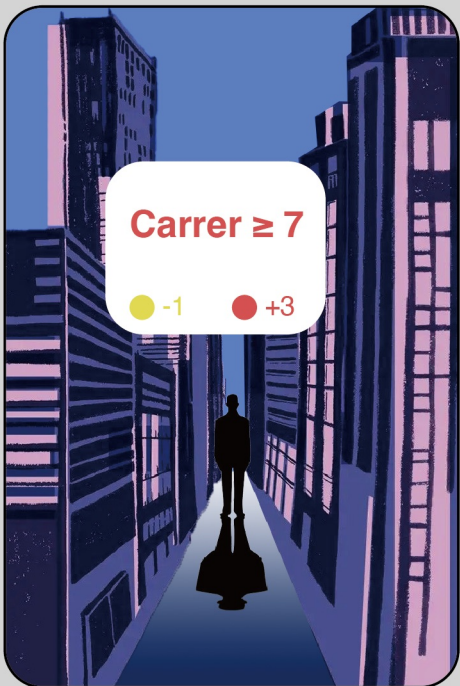

'A friend wants to start a business with you.'

V - II - III

Comparisons

'You feel like you're falling behind your peers,'

Carrer \geq 7

● -1

● +3

Whether this job is really for you remains to be seen.

V - III - II

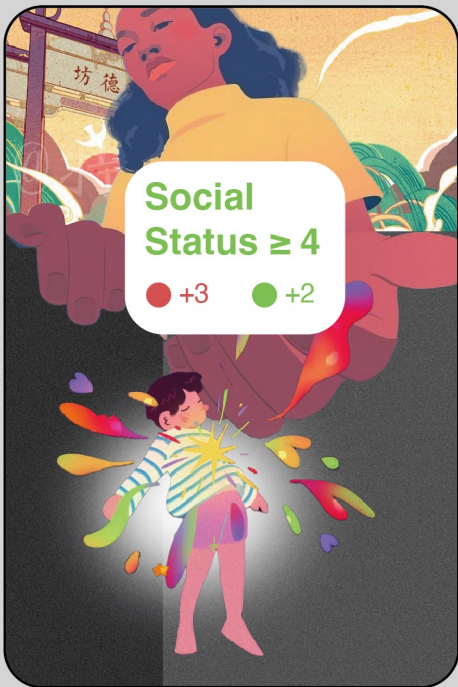

Exposure

‘You’ve been asked to consider a “more practical” major.’

V - III - III

Recommend

The government has launched the Young Talent Admission Scheme and you are eligible to apply.

VI - I - I

Entry

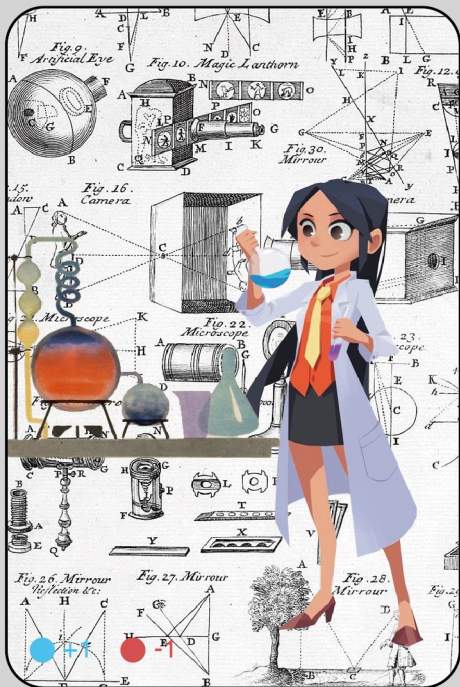

‘I accepted a stable administrative position.’

VI - I - II

Hobby Business

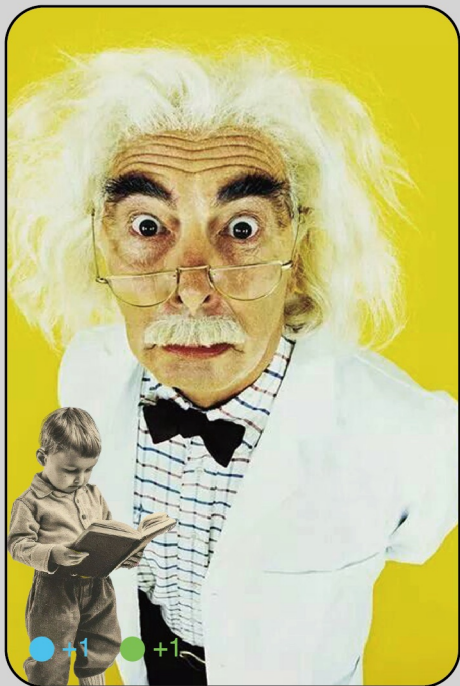

'I decided to try to start a business based on my passion.'

'I'm applying for a PhD to continue my research.'

VI - II - I

Doctoral

'Your supervisor recommended you for a PhD.'

VI - II - II

Redundancies

‘You were suddenly fired from the company.’

VI - II - III

Comparisons

● +1 ● +1

‘A dialogue that makes you rethink your life.’

VII - I - I

Promotion

"I've decided to stay in this position and strive for a promotion."

VII - I - II

Cross-border

'I decided to try a new field.'

VII - I - III

Stable Living

'I chose to work fewer hours and take care of my family.'

VII - II - I

Unpromoted

‘You didn't get the promotion you wanted.’

VII - II - II

Chance

‘You've been transferred to an important project team.’

VII - II - III

Interference

'A dialogue that makes you rethink your life.'

Social Status ≥ 6

+2

+2

You have been selected as a national representative to speak at the United Nations Youth Summit.

VII - III - II Training Class

‘You've been asked to consider a “more practical” major.’

VII - III - III

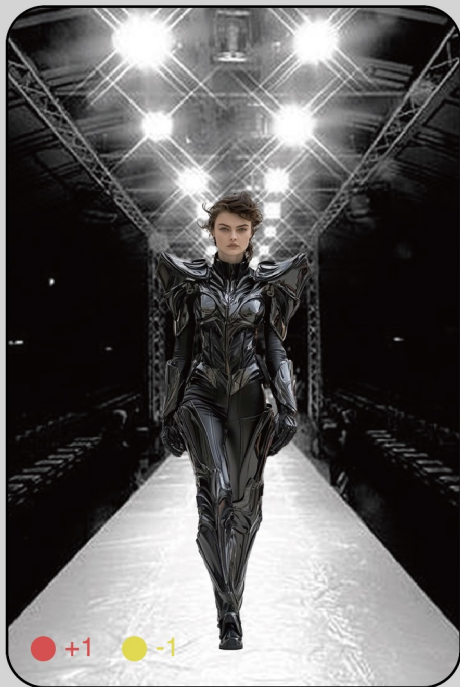

Be a Teacher

The government has launched the Young Talent Admission Scheme and you are eligible to apply.

VIII - I - I

Struggle

'I insist on being at the forefront of the workplace.'

VIII - I - II

Resume Hobby

'I decided to spend more time on my hobbies.'

+1

+1

'I applied to be a lecturer.'

VIII - II - I

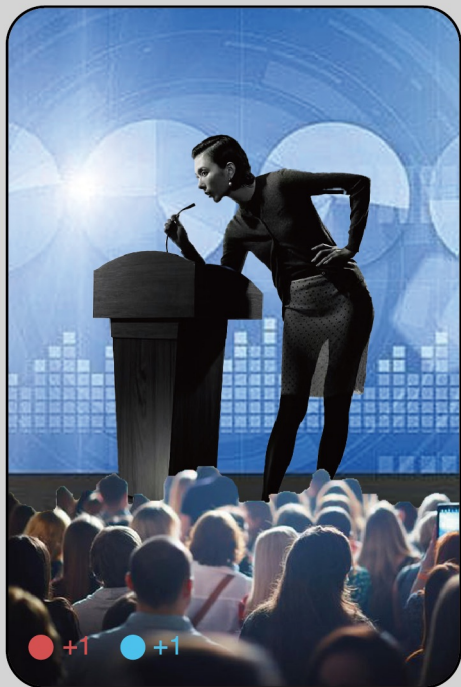

Retired

‘Due to a company merger, you took early retirement.’

VIII - II - II

Speeches

● +1 ● +1

‘You received an invitation to speak at your alma mater.’

VIII - II - III Hobby Group

'You have rejoined the interest group.'

